

DAN KIDNEY has some trite comments on the news of the day in a column, "Views on the News," in The Fort Worth Press. To illustrate...

Khrushchev took six hours to tell Communists, meeting in Moscow, how the USSR is going to beat the U. S. in mass production—already ahead in long speeches.

That latest Atlas missile fired at Cape Canaveral wasn't a moon shot—only a routine multi-million dollar test run.

Space explorer enthusiasts are asking congressmen this question: What on earth do you want to spend the taxpayers' money for?

Some scientists now say the earth is pear-shaped—just like most of us who are getting older. Dr. James B. Conant says "slow learners" shouldn't stay in school—let them go out and make a fast buck.

Small-scale fighting may resume again in Cuba—Raul Castro, Fidel's younger brother, got married.

MORE SQUIBS from the typewriter of Hal Cochran, printed in the Barbs column of The Fort Worth Press need wider circulation through this column of The Herald...

It takes a lot of money and a happy couple with children to build a real home.

It's better to help any unemployed person into a job than just help him out.

People who insist on driving over the speed limits should at least look out for other idiots.

A dog saved a little girl who fell in a back yard well in a Michigan town. Little girls' best friend, too, eh?

A HAMLIN LAD got the worse of the deal the other day in a neighborhood altercation.

The youngster came into the house with a black eye, bloody nose and all the marks of a rough fight. As his mother was patching him up, he said:

"Gosh, Mom, what a fighter! Last week when I challenged Jimmie to a duel and gave him the choice of weapons, I never thought he'd use his sister."

GASTON FOOTE, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Fort Worth, who spent part of his boyhood in the Hamlin area, has an interesting daily column, "Footnotes," in The Fort Worth Star-Telegram. We quote from a recent one...

Many of us are disillusioned by the false notion that Old Man Opportunity knocks only once. If we happen to be out Opportunity never returns. Instead, he sends his daughter, Miss Fortune.

Not so! Opportunity is always knocking. To be sure, it's too late for some opportunities. At my age I'll never run the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat. I once ran 100 yards in 13 seconds but I was being chased. I'll never win a beauty contest. I never did, anyway. I'll never graduate from college cum laude. When I graduated they said, "Lawdy, how cum?" I'll never have the opportunity of buying General Motors stock at $6 per share. That opportunity slipped by me 25 years ago.

Some things are irretrievably lost. It's too late for the ship captain to make the necessary repairs after the ship sinks. It's too late when the doctor says "incurable cancer." It's too late to think of safety measures after the automobile accident has sent us to the hospital.

But it is never too late for most opportunities. It is never too late for self-mastery. The most decisive battle that a man is ever called upon to fight is this battle. The trouble with most of us is that we have never really organized ourselves. Most of us are like the character Stephen Leacock described: "He got on his horse and rode off in all directions." H. G. Wells referred to one of his characters as "not so much a person as a civil war." The trouble is we never get organized. We are mastered by external pressures rather than inner motivations. Some of us are mastered by sins of the flesh. We never get beyond the pull of the physical appetites. Some of us capitulate in the presence of evil habits which have controlled us for years. Yet the opportunity is always present for us to take ourselves in hand and become masters of ourselves.

Sue Flenniken, Former Hamlin Girl, Win Cowboy Award at Amarillo Rodeo

Sue Flenniken, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken of Floydada, formerly of Hamlin, was named the all-around "cowboy" of the Amarillo Junior Amateur Rodeo. She is a native of Hamlin.

"It's the happiest day of my life," the willowy brunette declared as she accepted the saddle, which was the prize for all-around cowboy from Morris Stephens, rodeo producer.

"This is the first time I've known a girl to win the all-around" cowboy title in any rodeo," Sam Page, a show official said.

The 17-year-old high school junior gathered enough points in barrel racing and the musical chairs event to win over hard riding bull and bronc riders.

Riding in rodeos comes naturally for Sue since she comes from a rodeo family. Her father ropes in amateur rodeos as do her two brothers, Tommy, 21, and Ronnie, 13. She has a corral behind her father's gin at Floydada, where she practices barrel racing after school.

She has been rodeoing since age 11, and has won at Stamford, Hereford, Paducah, Roby and Abilene and participated in the finals sponsored by the Junior Rodeo Association at El Paso last August.

Election for Two School Trustees at Hamlin Set April 4

Voters in the Hamlin Independent School District will be called on to name two trustees in the annual trustee election, which was set by the board of education in regular session Monday evening for Saturday, April 4.

Terms of Richard Young and W. C. Eoff expire this year, and both men have agreed to have their names placed on the new ticket for reelection. Other names for places on the ticket may be filed with Richard Young, secretary. Names must be filed before 8:00 p. m. Thursday, March 5, according to school board officials, who point out that a change in the law requires that names of candidates for trustee must be filed 30 days prior to the election. Previously the requirement has been only 10 days.

Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook and all five principals were given renewal of contracts when the board of education of the Hamlin Independent School District met in monthly business session Monday evening.

Young Smith's wife and baby daughter, Terri Lynn, have been living in Midland with her parents. They will move soon to their new home in Lubbock, where Glenn will continue his studies at Texas Tech and work with the Santa Fe Railway.

County Farmers May Have Cotton Seed Tested Now

Jones County farmers who would like to have their cotton seed tested for germination and purity should send samples to one of two state seed laboratories soon, an announcement from the office of County Agent Kirby Clayton states.

Fee for testing for germination is $1 and for purity $1.50. Tests for germination may be made without having the purity test.

At least two pounds of seed are required for tests. The best way to secure sample is to thrust the hand into stack of seed and pull out a representative sample. The sample should be placed in a small box, wrapped securely and addressed to Seed Laboratory, Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas; or to 116 Agriculture Building, Texas Tech College, Lubbock, Texas.

A letter of instruction and a check should be placed in a separate stamped envelope and attached to the outside of the box. Farmers are urged that if they wait until near planting time to try to secure a germination test, they may be caught in a rush that would delay the return of the information until after planting time.

Schools Now in Good Financial Condition After Tax Collections

Hamlin Schools are now in good financial condition, it was revealed when tabulations of books were made at the Monday evening business session of the board of education of Hamlin Independent School District.

Tax Assessor-Collector Haskell W. Carter reported that 95.2 per cent of all 1958 taxes had been paid, plus some delinquent taxes. Tax rate for the school district was raised for 1958 from the rate of $1.25 to $1.50 per $100 valuation of property in the district. All bond obligations have been met, and good balances in operating funds are on hand, according to Superintendent of Schools C. B. Cook.

BCD Leaders Looking Forward To Accomplishments in 1959

Less Than 2,500 Poll Tax Receipts Issued in County

Less than 2,500 persons will have poll tax receipts qualifying them to vote in the 1959 elections, it was disclosed last week by Ina B. Dougherty, county tax assessor-collector, after final payments were totaled. The deadline was Saturday, January 31, and the final total was 2,453.

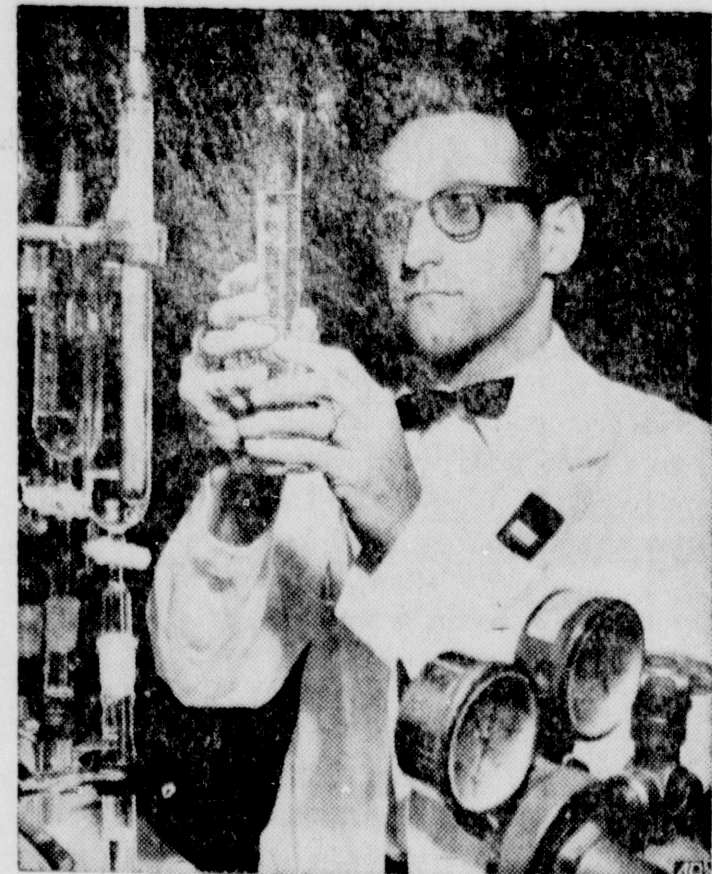

This year's poll tax payments fell far below the 3,188 of last year, even though the 1958 payments were more than 1,000 under those for the last presidential election year when 4,244 were paid.

The tax office also issued 19 exemptions to young persons who will get their first free vote this year, and one alien was registered by the tax assessor-collector's office at Anson.

Neinda Raises $101 in Separate Drive This Year

Hamlin community's contributions this year to the National Foundation (formerly the National Polio Foundation) are expected to exceed the community's gifts of last year, declared Ed Croan, community drive chairman, Wednesday as tabulations were being made on the almost completed campaign.

Total of $1,024.50 had been tabulated Tuesday night by the drive chairman, with collections from the coin depositories in the business houses of Hamlin yet to be picked up. The coin collectors are expected to push the total to possibly $1,250, the chairman indicated.

Last year's contributions for community, including Neinda, were about $1,300. Neinda this year conducted a separate community drive that had netted $101.50 at mid-week.

Croan was roundly congratulated this week by Mrs. Ned Moore, county chairman, for his untiring work in behalf of the community campaign.

The community chairman said the donations came from the following sections: Mother's march, $81.16; DePriest Colored School, $79; street blockade conducted by Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts, $234.12; Primary School, $69.12; through Lions Club, $40; Elementary School, $30.49; Junior High School, $24.22; sale of balloons by Camp Fire Girls, $109.18; mailers, $314.50; business donations not solicited by mail, $42.50.

F. Cook. Especially are six-year-olds who will be entering school for the first time next September wanted in the count.

State per capita payments to the various school districts are based on the scholastic census, Cook points out.

The special week is scheduled for March 2 through 6 in all the schools of the state.

INDEPENDENCE IS STILL BEING WON TODAY

The U. S. A. has come a long way since 1776, but our history books indicate that the country never has produced men more willing to stand up and be counted during a crisis than those who lived when the declaration of independence was drafted and signed.

Not that the declaration met with unanimous approval, because there were many individuals and groups among the colonists who were opposed to independence. Undoubtedly some feared failure and subsequent reprisals, but for the most part the reluctance, where it existed, stemmed from genuine affinity for the mother country, or perhaps it was that tenacious allegiance to the crown, which even today British subjects manifest marvelously.

Times have changed. It required weeks for word of the declaration to spread through the colonies. Today President Eisenhower and Nikita Khrushchev exchange long letters which are delivered within moments after they are signed, and then are transmitted to the public via the news media almost simultaneously with their receipt.

However, other factors have changed little, if any. The declaration meant declaration of decisive war, but it was decisive for a day, so to speak. There has been no conclusion to the fight, only a breathing spell here and there. And some of the temporary respites are fraught with ugly tension.

Independence meant freedom to the colonists nearly 200 years ago. Since then, we have learned, or should have by now, that freedom is not free, indeed.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home Town Newspaper, The Herald.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

In checking over our early day files of The Hamlin Herald we find the following items of interest taken from the issue dated February 15, 1929:

Carrie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Hamlin has been elected a member of the Student Council at the University of Oklahoma, where she is a junior student. The council is composed of only 12 students in the big Oklahoma school, and this is quite an honor for the Hamlin young woman.

According to last reports, practically all the right-of-way for the 10-mile line of the Hamlin & Northwestern Railway to the new Sand & Gravel Company north-east of Hamlin has been secured. Construction is scheduled to get underway within several days.

Anna Jo Newman, who is teaching at Newman, spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilkerson.

Mrs. R. C. Poore and little daughter, Sidney Alma, left last Friday for El Paso, where they will make their home. Mr. Poore remained here for a few days to wind up some business matters.

W. E. Benson, formerly of the Cecil Dry Goods Company here, is organizing a Retail Merchants Association.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Among items of interest in the Hamlin community 20 years ago were the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated February 10, 1939:

Cecil Elvens, one of Hamlin's well known young business men, has accepted a position with the Lubbock National Bank. He left Sunday to begin his new work. Cecil was with the McCauley State Bank for several years, then was with the Hamlin Farmers & Merchants National Bank.

Richard Feagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Feagan, has been awarded a national scholarship certificate for the second year at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

Eugene Morgan, son of Mrs. Florence Morgan of Hamlin, sends a card from Panama, where he visited as member of a U. S. Navy crew member on a ship passing through the Panama Canal.

Prizes of $125 will be given to winners in the first annual Livestock Show being staged Saturday at Hamlin under auspices of the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Rotary Club and the Woman's Literary Club.

TEN YEARS AGO

News items of interest in the Hamlin community 10 years ago included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated February 10, 1949:

Widening projects of Central Avenue and Lake Drive for the state highways that traverse the streets is about complete, according to Mayor Holly Toler. Curb and gutter will be laid by property owners and the highway department will pave the streets from curb to curb, Toler explains.

Total funds raised in the March of Dimes in Hamlin community this week neared $1,000, reports Mrs. V. R. Bond, drive chairman.

Hamlin merchants were victims last week of some "hot check" artists. More than $100 in worthless checks were passed. No arrests have been made.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Goings-on in the community five years ago included the following as recorded in The Hamlin Herald dated February 12, 1954:

Three people died in fires in the Hamlin region within 72 days this week. R. N. Shanon, 72, was burned in the destruction of his home in East Hamlin on Thursday, and two Blevins children died of burns at the same five miles east of town Wednesday morning.

Less poll taxes were paid in Jones County in 1954 than were paid the previous year, reports the county tax assessor-collector. The 3,576 total was 561 less than for a year ago.

ONE YEAR AGO

The following news bits were taken from the issue of the Hamlin Herald dated February 13, 1958:

A concerted church attendance drive is being conducted by members of the Hamlin Ministerial Alliance. People of the entire community are being urged to attend the churches of their choice Sunday.

Rat control demonstrations are being conducted in the county in an effort to reduce the rat population, which has been growing in recent months.

Films, Eats to Be Features Friday of John Deere Day

Plans for John Deere Day, to be held tomorrow (Friday) evening, are nearly complete, according to L. C. Bonds of Teague Implement Company, John Deere dealer for the Hamlin area. High spot of the entertainment will be a specially prepared color film program to be shown at the Primary School cafeteria beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Doughnuts and coffee will be served to all attendants.

Designed primarily for farmers and their families, the public is invited. Admission is free.

To those who have enjoyed other John Deere Day programs, there will be plenty of familiar features in this year's production, plus a big share of surprises the whole family will appreciate, declares Bonds.

Cantankerous Tom Gordon, farm character long popular with John Deere Day audiences, stars in "Too Young to Retire." As usual, he gets himself into a situation that involves the whole Gordon family, and then takes only his own advice in finding the solution. There is plenty of fun and suspense before everything ends well.

Harvesting takes the spotlight in "Oddities in Farming." This film subject, always popular with John Deere Day audiences, will show a custom built pea harvester in Wisconsin; a field going packing plant for sweet corn in Florida; and a big salt recovery operation in the San Francisco area.

Another new edition of a popular feature, "What's New for 1959," will introduce the portable, batch type John Deere grain dryer. Detail of controls and operation of the dryer will be clearly shown, and principal steps in an operation cycle will be demonstrated. Besides the dryer, three new multi-purpose sprayers will be introduced, together with an exciting line-up of other new equipment.

There are plenty of music and variety acts, too, in the John Deere Day show. Everyone will enjoy the numbers put on by the John Deere Singers and Dancers. The Mid-State Four, nationally known quartet, will present some close "barbershop" harmony as well.

Lions Club Views Film on Modern Army's Strength

Members and guests of the Hamlin Lions Club witnessed a film at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the civic group at the oil mill guest house which presented in forceful ways the huge strength of the modern U. S. Army.

"The Big Picture," prepared by U. S. Army leaders, showed in concise form the evolution of the early day weapons used by prehistoric man to the modern atomic weapons and machines that now give our Army units the highest degree of efficiency in the world.

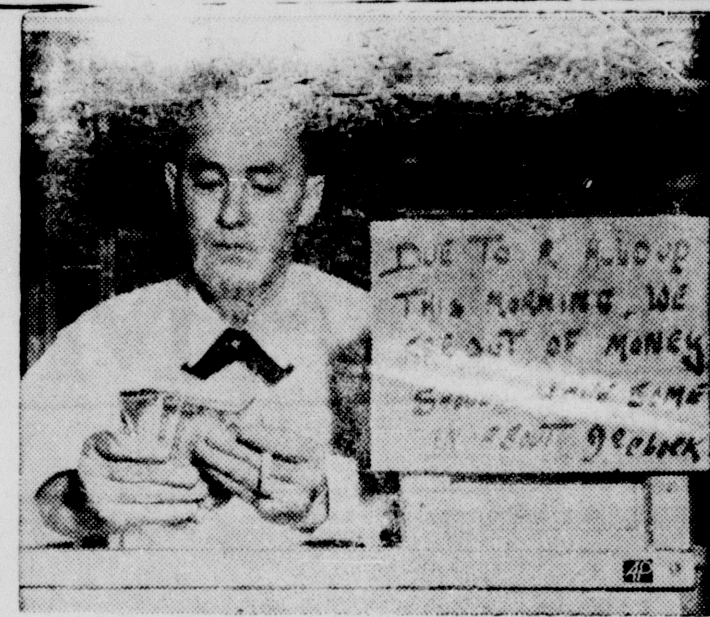

The film, arranged for by Max Murrell, showed in detail features of the three-pronged Army plans for maximum effectiveness with wide range communications, long range firepower and far ranging mobility of the "pentomic" Army. Treasurer Ed Croan of the Lions Club reported that total receipts from the recent pancake supper now have passed the $300 mark, with a few ticket sales still unreported.

Travis Pollock of Sweetwater was a guest at the Tuesday noon luncheon.

IDEAS ON FOOTBALL

Tom—"What makes you think your sister doesn't know much about sports?"

Don—"Well, she thought a football coach had four wheels."

HE GOT SOME BACK, ANYWAY—Walter Garrison, super market manager, displays a sign telling what happened. He holds the $90 a robber stuffed back in his pocket after taking about $4,000 in the Fort Worth robbery.

Hamlin Homemaking Teacher Goes to Area Service Training

Mrs. Joe Wayne Carter, homemaking teacher in Hamlin High School, attended an in-service training conference in Abilene last Friday and Saturday. The conference was under the sponsorship of the Texas Education Agency.

The Friday night program in the homemaking department of Abilene High School, featured Dr. Marie Wilmett, head of the home economics department of Abilene Christian College. Dr. Wilmett talked on scientific and active research in relationship with home economics.

Saturday the meeting was held at the Lytle Shores auditorium. Home economists from the West Texas Utilities Company demonstrated new laundry and kitchen equipment.

After the meeting the area advisory council met to discuss proposed standards for homemaking departments in the state of Texas. B. V. Newberry, Hamlin High School principal, and Mrs. Carter are members of the area council and attended the council meeting.

SURELY SCORCHED IT.

Bride—"Darling, I'm afraid your dinner will be a little burned tonight."

Groom—"What's the matter? Did they have a fire at the delicatessen?"

Homemaking Classes At DePriest School Finish Unit of Work

Students of the DePriest High School homemaking classes have recently begun their second semester's work, according to Mrs. E. F. Ford, instructor. They are studying a unit on clothing construction.

Homemaking I class is making a simple blouse and a dress; homemaking II, a tailored blouse and a dress; homemaking III a child's garment and a dress.

The units on clothing will be completed within 12 weeks, then a unit on home nursing and housing will be taught.

Adult classes, which are held on Tuesday evenings of each week, are creating a lot of interest, reports Mrs. Ford. Adult students enrolled are Alberta Clark, Alberta Baldwin, Annie Nell Lee, Christine Lee, Lisa Norman, Katherine Ervin, Margaret Bolden and Gertrude Griffin.

People who like to be waited on are the hardest ones to be cured of their ailments.

Editorial of the Week

SLIPPING TOWARD SOCIALISM

Have you taken inventory lately of how far our free American enterprise system has taken on socialistic characteristics?

We have the progressive income tax first proposed by the Marxists, but we have made it more radical than they could have imagined possible.

We have a great number of government manufacturing operations producing goods in competition with private firms.

The federal government is the largest land owner in the country, and the largest employer.

We have federally owned and federally financed utility systems.

We may not have collectivized our farms, but we have government management of farm production, of farm acreage, of farm prices and of some kinds of farm labor.

We have federally financed and subsidized housing.

We have various social welfare programs which tax Peter to support Paul.

The growing number of these programs makes it evident that our government has taken long strides toward socialism, accomplishing by evolution results that our people would have resisted if they had been attempted by revolution.—The Giddings Star.

Nuggets of Thought

Humanitarianism consists in never sacrificing a human being to a purpose.—Albert Schweitzer.

Our humanity were a poor thing for the divinity that stirs within us.—Francis Bacon.

I am a man, and whatever concerns humanity is of interest to me.—Terrence.

A rational nature admits of nothing which is not serviceable to the rest of mankind.—To him whose elastic and vigorous thought keeps pace with the sun the day is a perpetual morning.—Henry David Thoreau.

Marcus Antoninus.

Nation Faces Challenges by Russia On Two Fronts, Senator Johnson Says

This nation faces challenges by Russia on two vital fronts—in space and on the ground.

In the survival race for space, this nation trails the Soviets. And on the second front—of economic warfare—it faces the taunting dare of the Khrushchev.

In development of missiles—in the exploration of outer space—this nation is engaged in the deadly game of playing catch-up. We are trying to catch up with the Russians.

Catch up we must and soon. The goal must be to exceed the Soviets.

But before the achievement can be accomplished, we must determine how far the nation is behind. We must determine what needs to be done now.

This is the purpose of the defense preparedness and space committee hearings now in progress.

But in meeting Communism on one front we cannot abandon the other.

It was Nikita Khrushchev who recently boasted the Soviets can beat this nation to its knees by economic warfare.

The challenge must be picked up. Answered. Hurdled back.

We must realize this nation is engaged in a race for survival of our way of life. It is a race in which we are a day late and a dollar short.

To answer the challenge of the Kremlin, I firmly believe it would be well now if we were to assemble an advisory committee of businessmen. Men of action, experience and vigor.

From this group should come recommendations of economic strategy—broad plans that would put this nation on the attack in answering the Soviet economic challenge.

More Than $48,000 Raised for CROP by Church Units in Texas

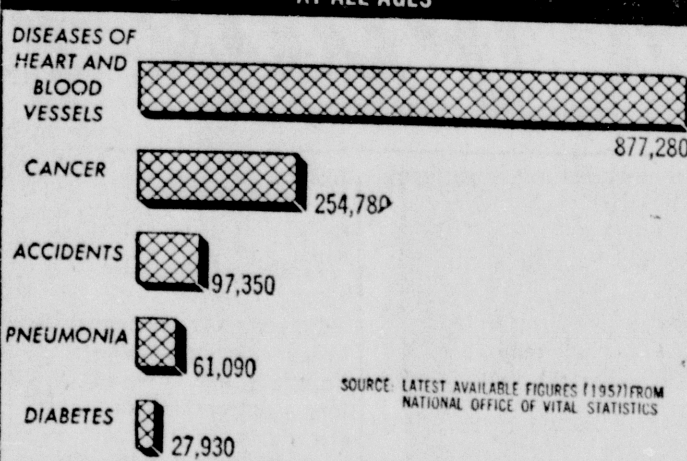

When the books closed in the state CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) office in Austin recently there was a total of $47,789.95 contributed for the CROP, the SDS program of church world service, in which the Hamlin community participated.

Since that time over $500 has been sent in which was too late to be listed. The total for 1958 will be over $48,000.

This was a joint effort of men and women and youths working together in the name of Christ to do a job of utmost importance—feeding the hungry people of the world.

Representative Leon Thurman Says Hearings on Bills Getting Underway

Leon Thurman of Anson, representative of the 86th Texas District, reports on activities of the new Legislature at Austin in his weekly news release to The Herald as follows:

This begins the fourth week of the fifty-sixth Legislature, and most of the committees have been organized and started hearings on bills. Probably from here on this session of the Legislature will be very busy in committee hearings.

Sometimes it seems to most of the people of the state that the Legislature is not working as the House meets and works three or four hours and then adjourns; however, they should realize that most of the work is done in committees and these committees must meet while the House is adjourned.

The most amazing thing that we have found since being in the Legislature is the tag that some people give each member. If we were to support a $2 increase in the old age benefits we would immediately be branded a "liberal." On the other hand, if we voted for a $10,000,000 increase in highway expenditures we could be branded a "conservative." What is the dividing line and who should be allowed to label members of the Legislature as "liberals" or "conservatives"?

So far we have not received either of these labels, but know when legislation is introduced and votes are taken, the third House will label us either a "conservative," "liberal" or "middle-of-the-road" man.

The bills that have been introduced this session are too numerous to name, however, we will try to keep the people of our district informed as to any legislation that will affect us.

There is some talk about a bill being introduced to abolish the trappers that are now provided for by the county, state and federal government. However, this is just talk and possibly will not

Red Cross First Aid Courses Being Staged by Shell

First of a series of four classes on approved Red Cross first aid was conducted Monday evening at the Hamlin Primary School cafeteria under sponsorship of safety officials of the Shell Pipe Line Company for employees of that concern and any others interested in the course.

Direction the classes are J. E. Fairweather and P. J. Rogers of Colorado City, out of the district Shell office.

The new 10-hour (formerly 20 hours) first aid course treats with the new techniques of "What's New in First Aid."

Those other than Shell Pipe Line employees who attended the Monday night class were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hastings, Mrs. Peggy Overman and son, Johnny, L. W. Bryson, C. V. Herbert, J. A. Howard, J. B. Jayroe and M. J. Scott.

The Shell officials point out that the classes are free, and that others may qualify for the course by attending the next three Monday evenings at the Primary School cafeteria beginning at 7:00 o'clock p. m.

Farmers Reminded of Income Tax Deadline

Area farmers are reminded by County Agent Kirby Clayton that February 15 is the deadline date for filing income tax reports. Reports for this area should be mailed to the District Director of Internal Revenue at Dallas.

Biscayne 4-Door Sedan shows the Fisher Body beauty of Chevrolet's lowest priced series for '59.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

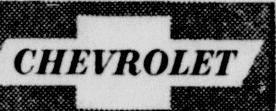

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

Year of Action Reviewed in Reports by Clubbers at B&PW Club Dinner

Reports of accomplishments of the past and projects planned for the near future by various civic and women's organizations of the Hamlin community, as outlined by representatives of 15 of the groups before a dinner meeting of the Hamlin Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening indicated that the clubs are civic minded and geared for action.

The session, held in the Primary School cafeteria, numbered over half a hundred attendants. The public relations committee of the B&PW Club, composed of Maggie Seymore, Etta Bond, Nettie Bowen, Faye Atkinson, Overa Jones, and Lorene Bayouth, was in charge of arrangements and the program.

Table and room decorations carried out a Valentine motif. Long streamers of ivy down the centers of the serving tables provided greenery to complement the bright red decorations and favors of the Valentine theme.

Mildred Howard, B&PW president, was master of ceremonies. Following the invocation by Mrs. Tom Teague, Rev. Edmund Robb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, urged the cooperation of clubs' representatives to support the Hamlin-for-Christ Day being sponsored by the Hamlin Ministerial Alliance on February 22. Lorene Bayouth led the group in singing "Oh, My Darling Clementine," accompanied by Jonecie McCrary.

Mildred Howard presented the club representatives, who spoke briefly of their accomplishments. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Annie Cassle representing the Garden Club; John V. Howard Jr., Rotary Club; Mr. and Mrs. Irvy Weaver, Fifty-Two Study Club; Don Lock, Veterans of Foreign Wars post; Mrs. Don Lock, VFW Auxiliary post; Austin Siburt, Lions Club; Mrs. Tate May, Woman's Forum; Mrs. Richard Young Jr., Woman's Literary Club; Mr. and Mrs. James Josey, Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department; Mrs. M. F. Green, Friendship Home Demonstration Club; Mrs. Wesley Nail, Parent-Teacher Association; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bonds, Beta Theta Sorority; Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Hawkins, Xi Gamma Phi Sorority; Fred B. Moore Jr., Board of Community Development; Mrs. B. V. Newberry, Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs.

Mrs. Evie Wilson, charter member of the B&PW Club, recounted work and projects of the host group. Mrs. Wilson and Lennie Greenway sponsored the organization of the club in 1951. Pat Branscum and Elizabeth Daniels, Hamlin High School girls, were presented as seniors of the month by Zelma Hulise, school librarian. Other guests included Rev. Robb, Lulan Vaughan, Bill Davis, Melvin Scott, Levi McCollum of McCaulley, and J. C. Burton Jr.

Jim had planned a fishing trip with one of his neighbors, a young Chinese with the nickname of Charlie, who, though thoroughly Americanized in everything else, was still a bit reckless with the English language.

At the last minute, however, Charlie came over to say that he couldn't make it.

"Something came down," he explained.

Jim chuckled. "You mean, 'Come up,' Charlie."

Charlie grinned ruefully. "No, down. Wife's foot."

ARTFUL DODGE.

The American sculptress Janet Scudder, was once modeling the head of an elderly Parisian who ate only those foods which were heavily seasoned with garlic. The odor was so overpowering that the sculptress experienced serious discomfort and found it difficult to concentrate on her work.

After a few days, she discovered that peppermint candy relieved her distress and she began consuming it in quantities.

One morning she noticed that her model looked ill and asked, "Is something wrong?"

"Mademoiselle," pleaded the Parisian "eef you want me to pose for you, you weel have to stop eating that awful peppermint. The smell—eet makes me sick!"

NOT COUNTED YET.

A census taker asked a woman how many children she had. "Well," she began, there's Willie and Henry and Martha and . . . "Never mind the names," he said impatiently, "just give me the number."

His tone aroused the mother's indignation. "They haven't got numbers," she said sharply, "They all have names."

Pied Piper Cagers Will Go to Haskell Friday for Last Game

Tilt May Have Effect on Loop's Final Outcome

Hamlin High School basketball teams will wind up their play for the season tomorrow (Friday) night when the go to Haskell for two games with the A and B teams of boys. No girls' tilt is scheduled since Haskell floored no girls' team this year.

Although Hamlin already is out of the District 6-AA title race, the game has a mighty effect on the conference cage climax. Stamford's Bulldogs are holding to first place in the loop standings, but a loss by Stamford to Anson Friday night and a victory by Haskell would put the Bulldogs and Indians in a tie for the championship.

The Hamlin Pied Pipers will enter Friday night's fray with a three win, four loss record. But this fact will not slow the cagers down in their spirit to win, declares Coach Laminack.

The B game will begin at 7:00 o'clock, and the A tilt will get underway at 8:00, it is announced. A good sized delegation of local fans will follow the boys to the Haskell County capital, it is expected.

DISTRICT 6-AA STANDINGS

This week-end's play will wrap up the District 6-AA basketball race with two games on the conference slate. However, the final page will not be written until Hamlin and Haskell play at Haskell, and Stamford and Anson play at Anson.

Standings this week are changed a little from last week, with Haskell taking the second spot ahead of Anson.

Standing's after Tuesday night's games looked like this:

Teams	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Stamford	7	6	1	.857
Haskell	7	5	2	.814
Anson	7	5	2	.814
Hamlin	7	3	4	.428
Seymour	8	8	0	.000

Last Week's Results.

Friday—Stamford 80, Seymour 26; Anson 63, Hamlin 55.

Tuesday—Stamford 69, Hamlin 55; Haskell 64, Seymour 40.

Where They Play Friday.

Friday — Hamlin at Haskell; Stamford at Anson.

Junior High Wins One, Loses Two To Anson Squads

Hamlin Junior High School's girls' basketball team upheld the honor of the school last Tuesday night when they took their end of cage play from the Anson girls as the two Hamlin boys' teams dropped their meles before the onslaughts of the county seaters.

The girls took their fracas by a 32 to 13 score. Lagena Weaver led the local girls in scoring by sacking 14 points. Billye Blankinship made nine points, Sandra Jayroe four, Julie Daniels three and Mary Beth Hall two points.

Hamlin eighth grade boys lost their encounter with Anson by a 27 to 10 county as the Anson lads played all over the court. Dan Newberry accounted for six of the locals' points, and Van Newberry and Tommy Shelburne each managed to sack two points.

In the seventh grade boys' tilt the Anson crew took the long end of a 34 to 24 score. Speck Cox was high pointer for Hamlin with 10 tallies. Cleon Warner made six, Ronnie Teichelman put through four, and Doyle Bell and Gary Ted Jay each bucketed two marks.

Hamlin Girls Win as Boys Lose to Merkel In Thursday Games

Hamlin Junior High School girls again defended their high rank in basketball play this season by tripping the Merkel girls 29 to 19 in a game played last Thursday at Merkel. Billye Blankinship with 11 points was second behind Lagena Weaver with 14 points in the scoring for Hamlin. Julie Daniel looped four points for the little Pipers.

Hamlin's eighth grade boys' team was eked out by the Merkel boys in a 19 to 18 count. The Merkel lads made the deciding point on a free pitch with only 15 seconds to play. Mike Martin led the Hamlin scoring with eight points. Van Newberry accounted for five points, Roy Kelly and Randy Brown each popped in two tallies, and Tommy Shelburne was responsible for one marker.

In the seventh grade tilt the Hamlin cagers took the event 21 to 19 in an overtime period after the game ended in a tie. Jimmy Inzer dropped in the winning

Anson Tigers Put Pied Pipers Out of District Cage Race

Anson High School's Tigers eliminated the Hamlin Pied Pipers from the District 6-AA basketball race last Friday night when they trounced Coach Neil Laminack's cagers by a 63 to 55 score on the Anson court. Both Anson and Hamlin still had clung to a slim chance at the district title before the game.

The loss to Anson gave the Pied Pipers to three won, three lost record for conference play. Cecil Robinson, Hamlin center, was high pointer for the game, looping 26 markers. Wade made 15 points for Hamlin. Larry Lindsey led the scorers for Anson with 19 points.

In the B game that preceded the district tilt Hamlin was on the long end of a 40 to 36 score. Wayne Boatwright made 16 points for Hamlin, and Dudley White sacked 13 for Anson.

THAT COMES HIGH:

A couple celebrating their twentieth anniversary were seated at the movies watching one of those torrid foreign films. When they got home that night the wife turned to her husband coyly. "Why is it you never make love to me like those men in the movies?" she murmured. "Are you crazy?" he replied. "Do you know how much they pay those fellows for doing that?"

two-pointer. Gary Jay was high pointer for Hamlin. Inzer made four points, Ronnie Teichelman three, Butch Holland, Cleon Warner and Speck Cox hit two each, and Ronnie Sipe and Larry Butler tallied one point each.

Stamford Bulldogs Lambast Pipers in Tuesday Night Cage Tilt by 69 to 55

Coach Neil Laminack's Hamlin High School basketballers slipped further down the District 6-AA standings ladder Tuesday night by falling victim to the rampaging Stamford Bulldogs in their next-to-last game of the season. Final score was 69 to 55.

Played on the Hamlin court, the tilt was a hard fought one, but the superior ability of the Bulldogs showed up all the way. Fred Upshaw made 21 points and Ronnie Weeks looped 14 to lead the visitors to victory.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin—With committee hearings going full tilt, the Legislature has reached the rough and tumble stage.

Committee hearings give everyone who has anything to say about a proposed measure a chance to come and speak up. It brings people to Austin in droves. And many speak up—very bluntly.

This year's lawmaker's, particularly in the House, seem to be falling into an early pattern of much work, little play. In part the shortage of sociability is attributed to the hard fought speaker's race. It divided the House into two camps, whose members, for the most part, stayed aloof from each other during early weeks.

A second sobering factor is attributed to the new lobby control law. Actually, the lobby registration requirement has probably done more than anything in years to make lobbying seem common-place, respectable. A total registration of some 700 indicated that just about everybody and his brother has a lobbyist.

But the law also requires that each lobbyist make a monthly report on the amount spent influencing legislation. Herein comes the reason for caution in entertainment. No one particularly minds being identified as a lobbyist, but too large expenses might incur the risk of being tagged a "rich lobbyist."

Rough Road.—Toughest sledding continues to be over the money problem.

Governor Price Daniel let go with both barrels at critics of his plan for clearing the state deficit and raising additional money for future state services.

Daniel's principal target is Representative Frates Seelgson of San Antonio, whose 18 months' work with the State Tax Study Commission convinced him Texas' taxing had to branch out, partly through a 1.5 per cent sales tax. Daniel's money program is based primarily on a natural gas severance tax and increases in a number of present taxes. He warned he'd fight for this program to the last ditch, even into a third term if necessary.

Matter of Math.—First official consideration of a part of the governor's money program signalled a real set-to.

It was a hearing on "the book-keeping bill" by the House revenue and taxation committee. This is a proposal, sponsored by Representative James E. Bates of Edinburg, to credit to the general revenue fund $18,000,000 from the omnibus tax fund. Since the general revenue fund is expected to be $65,000,000 in the red by August 31, this would help to ease the pain in that area.

Representatives from the state comptroller's office called the plan unsound, declared such juggling around would just be "legalizing a false statement." Legislative critics labeled it "check kiting."

But members of the governor's office defended it stoutly as a means of giving a "true picture of financial condition."

Parkhouse vs. Labor.—More heat was generated when representatives of organized labor came up to protest Senator George Parkhouse's union reporting bill.

Briefly, the Parkhouse bill would prohibit use of union dues for political purposes, and require unions to file financial statements audited by a certified public accountant.

Labor officials protested that some phrasing in the bill was so broad as to limit union members from expressing opinions and, hence, free speech. They also said the CPA requirement would be too heavy an expense for small unions.

Parkhouse said many union members had asked him to sponsor such a bill so they could get an accounting of what goes with union funds. Some, he said, complained the dues money was used for purposes with which they did not agree.

School Bills.—Committee hearings on higher education appropriations brought varied, but cautious, expression on how these increasing costs might be met.

Before the House appropriations panel, A. M. Muldrow, higher education commission chairman, said that the commission was studying the question of asking for higher college tuition rates. State college tuition was

Winter Driving Made Dangerous By Poor Visibility

"Poor visibility is one of the most serious problems facing the motorist in winter driving," J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, pointed out this week in a release to The Herald.

"In addition to the hazards of skidding that winter presents, the problem of reduced visibility can make driving especially treacherous. Motorists must be able to see danger to avoid it," Musick said.

He also warned motorists to replace windshield wipers that have become worn out or baked stiff by the past summer's sun.

"Fewer hours of daylight, slippery streets and streaked windshields all serve to reduce the distance a driver can safely see," he said.

"Also, keep the inside of car windows clean and free of smoke or steam. Danger may approach from the sides or rear as well as from the front."

The safety expert said that in almost one out of seven fatal accidents, the driver's vision was obscured. In two out of five of these cases, the obstruction was on the vehicle itself, such as rain, snow or sleet on the windshield.

"Keep these figures in mind," Musick warned, "and keep alert to the road ahead. No sane person would drive with his eyes closed, so why drive when vision has been obstructed?"

doubled from $50 to $100 a year, last session.

Before the Senate finance committee most of a group of 18 junior college president said they would approve a general sales tax "if necessary."

By the Dozens.—More and more bills keep pouring into the legislative mill daily. Among recent ones are those measures which would:

Protect public records by providing a three to seven-year prison term for unlawful removal, by Senator David Ratliff of Stamford.

Create a new commission to regulate telephone, gas and electric power companies state-wide, by Representative Bill Kilgartin of Houston.

Keep passenger trains running longer after revenue declines, by Representative Clyde Miller of Houston. Railroads cannot now be required to operate passenger service at a loss.

Increase franchise tax on corporations by 60 cents on each $1,000 capital, by Representative J. E. Winfree of Houston. Part of the Daniel tax program. It would raise an estimated $14,000,000 this year, $15,000,000 next year, then expire.

Raise state employee pay five per cent on salaries under $4,000, by Travis County legislators.

Permit flexible rates on automobile insurance, varying according to good and bad records of drivers, by Senator Jarrard Seelgson of Temple. This is a highly controversial bill which was defeated last session.

Tax trading stamps by 10 per cent, by Representative Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs.

Regulate boxing and wrestling by a new commission created for that purpose, by Representative Will Smith of Beaumont.

Abolish aeronautics board by Representative Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline. He called it a "needless waste" of state money with the CAA serving all useful aviation functions. He said he is considering a similar bill to end the Good Neighbor Commission.

CONFESSES SLAYING—Willie Philpot, arrested in Longview, has confessed a long string of murders and assaults, including the murder of a Dallas woman and the assault of another. He also admitted a murder at Longview and said he committed three assaults in the Sherman-Denison area.

Orphans May Take VA Aid at Earlier Age

War orphans with mental or physical handicaps may now be enrolled for special training at an earlier age than that authorized for others, the Veterans Administration said this week.

The amended law permits an eligible orphan who has reached his fourteenth birthday to pursue special restorative training or a specialized course of vocational training if the applicant has a mental or physical handicap, and the VA finds that his best interest will be served by the training. VA said.

Sweetheart Banquet For Youths Stated by North Central Church

Stage is set for the annual Sweetheart banquet sponsored by the North Central Avenue Baptist Church for young people of the church and their friends. The affair will be sponsored by women of the church tomorrow (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock at the high school cafeteria.

Junior and intermediate youths of the church will be honored.

Special music will be provided by Mrs. Lesley Shelburne. Rev. C. D. McIntyre, pastor of the Elmwood Baptist Church in Abilene, will be the speaker of the evening. It is announced.

THE WHOLE TRUTH

A certain well known San Diego judge attended a banquet at a local hotel recently. Upon entering he checked his coat but neglected to get a check-stub in return.

When he was ready to leave he asked the attendant for his coat, which was promptly handed to him.

"How do you know this one is mine?" the judge asked surprised.

"I don't sir," answered the attendant, "but it's the one you gave me when you came in."

'59 MERCURY CUTS THE HUMP IN THE FLOOR WAY DOWN. FIRST CAR WITH REAL COMFORT—EVEN FOR CENTER-SEAT PASSENGERS

For 1959, Mercury's got what the other new cars forgot. For example, Mercury is the only new car that remembers "the man in the middle."

Other new cars still have that big tunnel-hump in the center of the floor. The so-called "6-passenger" models are only comfortable for 4 passengers. Center-seat passengers ride with their legs doubled up. But Mercury has cut the hump in half—shrunk it into a footrest. Seat cushioning is deep and soft. There's solid, stretch-out comfort wherever you sit.

Stop in. See all the ways Mercury turns problems into pleasures: windshield wipers that clear even the center, doors that are easy to get through (wider than in the costliest cars). And so much more—all at a price that 2 out of 3 new-car buyers can afford.

Small Movement of Livestock Over Southwest Helps to Keep Prices Level

Volume of cattle now moving in the Southwest continues small but the demand for stocker and feeder cattle continued strong throughout the territory, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. His weekly market summary. His release continues: Fed cattle prices have been under some pressure in recent days, but most feeders report favorable returns and this has held fleshy feeders up well. Lighter weight stockers continue in good demand as grass gets a little nearer each day.

Currently prices of calves are $3 to $5 above a year ago, and yearlings are $2 to $3 higher, spots $4 higher. The spread above prices of a year ago is also being reflected in cattle contracts for spring and later delivery.

Intense interest in "buying" cattle has been strongly reflected in the early reservations made by buyers for the March 5 special stocker and feeder cattle sale at Fort Worth. More than half of the buyers who have contacted the Market Institute have been ranchers and farmers, rather than professional order buyers, dealers or commission men.

This "grass roots" demand reflects continued optimism going into the summer grazing season and a surprising number of them indicate an interest in plain cattle or crossbred cattle and calves.

PIANOS! PIANOS!

The tendency to buy plainer cattle reflects an effort on the part of people seeking cattle to trim costs a little but certainly impresses one with the determination of these people to "get some cattle."

The March 5 event at Fort Worth will mark the first time that auction selling has been available, along with the regular private treaty system in vogue on the market there. The seller and the buyer will be able to take his choice as to the system he wants to sell or buy under. This unique situation has created so much interest the Market Institute has set aside the first rows of the stands and will reserve them individually for buyers who seek them, so that stockmen seeking replacements will not be crowded out by curiosity seekers.

Cattle and calves were uneven at Fort Worth Monday with fed steers slow and weak to 50 cents lower. Fat cows were also dull and weak to unevenly lower. Canners and cutters, bull and slaughter calves were fully steady. Stocker and feeder classes were in rather light supply and steady.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold from $25.50 to $27, a few handyweight young choice cattle up to $28. Common and medium sorts sold from $18 to $25.50.

Fat cows cleared at $18.50 to $20.50, and canners and cutters drew $13 to $19. Bulls sold from $18 to $25.50. Good and choice slaughter calves cleared at $25.50 to $29.25, and common and medium sorts drew $20 to $25. Culls sold from $17 to $20.

Medium and good stocker steer calves sold from $27 to $33, and similar heifer calves ranged from $30 downward. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $22 to $30.

lambs ruled steady at Fort Worth lambs were strong to 50 cents higher. The receipts were also lambs.

Good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $16 to $17.50, and good and choice feeder lambs cashed a $16 to $18, the higher figure for around 80-pound woolled feeders. Shorn fat lambs with No. 2 and No. 3 pelts sold from $16.50 downward. Shorn feeder lambs of good to choice quality sold from $16 to $17.50. Low grade stocker lambs drew $13 to $15.50.

In the parlor Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Fremont were reliving the good old days, while their husbands sat smoking on the porch.

"Remember when women started wearing short skirts," Mrs. Tucker remarked, "even up to the knee?"

"Can't name the year it started," Mrs. Fremont replied, "but I can find out. 'Hey, Charlie,' she called out to her husband, 'what year was it you started wearing glasses?'"

Parents Urged to Talk to Teachers About Low Grades

The school year is more than one-half completed, points out Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, in a release this week to The Herald. He continues: I sincerely hope all of our children did receive good reports, but knowing all do not put forth their best efforts, therefore, some received reports that were not satisfactory.

I would like to suggest, if you are dissatisfied with your child's report, that you see his or her teacher and principal and discuss ways and means to help your child. We have done a great deal of testing recently, therefore, you can secure information in regard to your child's ability. So many times a child brings poor reports home and the parents are very unhappy, but do not try to correct the cause or try to find out why their child is not doing well. This is a bad mistake to go guilty of making. It is wise to be open minded when you visit your child's teacher, because teachers are only people like yourselves, trained to teach school.

I know so many times a teacher would like to talk to parents about their children but do not have the time to visit all homes. It is wise for all parents to visit your school often. This gives your teachers and children confidence in knowing that you are interested in your school.

It is well to know each and every one in your community. I am sorry to say that I do not; therefore, I invite you as a school parent and a taxpayer to visit your school and my office.

WRONG MAN WORRYING.

Father (on sick bed)—"My son, you and I must have a heart-to-heart talk. Suppose I should suddenly be taken from you, what do you think would happen to you?"

Son—"I'd stay right here. The big question, as I see it, is what would happen to you?"

DeMille's "Ten Commandments" Shows Four Days

The big film news in town is that the much-talked-about and greatly acclaimed spectacle, Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments" will return to the Ferguson Theater for four days starting Saturday. Every minute of three hours and 39 minutes of entertainment is intact, exactly as it ran in previous special engagements throughout the country.

The technicolor, Paramount production, in vista-vision, stars Yul Brynner as Rameses II, Charlton Heston as Moses, Anne Baxter as the seductive throne Princess Nefretiri who loves Moses but when rejected turns against him; Edward G. Robinson as Dathan, the tricky overseer of the Hebrew slaves;

"The Ten Commandments" is the account of the life of Moses from his infancy when his mother set him afloat on the Nile, through his years as a young man, a mighty general in the Pharaoh's army, to his betrayal and exile to the desert, and finally his deliverance of the Israelites and his receiving God's commandments. Many of the scenes were filmed on Mount Sinai itself, on the shores of the Red Sea and on the very desert sands that Moses trod. Feature show times Saturday and Sunday will be at 1:00, 5:00 and 9:15 p. m. Monday and Tuesday show times will be at 7:00 p. m.

CHARLTON HESTON as Moses in Cecil B. DeMille's unforgettable masterpiece, "The Ten Commandments," will play four days beginning Saturday at the Ferguson Theater. The technicolor spectacular co-stars Yul Brynner as Rameses.

MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

A man who was very rich but noted for his stinginess was bombarding with questions a salesman in the car showroom. At last, indicating a certain model, he asked, "Does that one consume much gas?"

"A mere spoonful, sir," replied the exasperated salesman.

Asked the miser, "A teaspoonful or a tablespoonful?"
